

Brownfield Rec's Wild Game Cook Off Contest

Rules

WILD GAME: Any portion of any non-endangered or non-protected animal that is not considered "typical grocery store meat" including venison, elk, quail, rabbit, alligator, bear, buffalo, ostrich, etc. If you have any questions regarding your proposed entry please contact the Event Coordinators below prior to the competition.

For the safety of the judges and others please be scrupulous in handling this meat.

Each cooking team or individual will bring a dish to the Brownfield Community Center on February 25, 2012 during our Winter Carnival Event. Each dish must make at least 25 individual 2 oz. (by volume) portions to be distributed to judges and spectators. Brownfield Rec will provide the portion cups and eating utensils to each contestant on the morning of the event.

Each cooking team or individual shall have an official name and remember to be imaginative!

Brownfield Rec will provide you with a 6ft table and space with which to display and serve your dish. These tables will be indoors but winners will be announced outside the gym area. We encourage you to decorate your space, dress up, and be creative with your presentation.

All cooking spaces will be set-up and maintained in accordance with conducting a fun, family-friendly, clean and safe event environment. The kitchen will not be open to contestants so please bring your dish ready to serve. Contestants will be expected to provide their own crock pot or other device to keep your food warm. Electricity will be supplied but please bring your own extension cords.

JUDGING:

Judging will be on February 25, 2012 at 11:30am at the Brownfield Winter Carnival.

A committee of judges will decide Best of Show and Runner Up awards. A number will be affixed to the container denoting the team's entry. This contest allows blind judging only. The judges will refer only to the assigned judging number without knowing the actual team.

PRIZES AND AWARDS:

Prizes and awards will be announced on February 25, 2012 at 12:00pm outside at the skating rink.

- 1st place for Best of Show will be awarded a certificate and $50 Cabela's Gift Card.
- Runner Up will be awarded a Certificate.
- Bragging rights are...priceless!
